HELD FOR WIFE MURDER.

Adolph Noekel Accused of Killing His Wife by Kicking Her.

Adolph Noekel, a young German, twenty-six years of age, was held this afternoon by Coroner Dobbs to await the action of the Grand Jury on suspicion of having caused the death of his wife, Mary Louise Noekel, at their residence, 129 East One Hundred and Ninth street, on March 22, by kicking her.
The testimony was to the effect that during a quarrel Noekel kicked his wife.
She was in a delicate condition, and in the verdict seven of the jurors held that she died of peritonitis due to natural causes. The remaining five jurors held that she died of peritonitis, the primary cause of which was unknown to them.

Cosmopolitans New Move.

It has been decided by John Brisbane Walker, publisher of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, to remove his plant and publication office to Irvington-on-the-Hudson. It has been known for some time that Mr. Walker has had in mind the transferring of his business interests away from New York because of the heavy taxes on his property.
Mr. Walker lives in Irvington, and has recently purchased the farm estate there, upon which he will erect an office building suitable to the demands of a publishing house.

COXEYITES GIVE UP.

They Surrender a Seized Freight Train to the Military.

Gov. McKinley Ordered Regiments to Mount Sterling.

Commonwealthers Yield Reluctantly
—More Trouble Feared.

MOUNT STERLING, O., April 28.—

Detectives Mahoney, Murphy, Bauer and Schlessinger, with a posse of 100 men, arrived here on a special train from Columbus at 1 A. M. Their purpose is to drive Galvin's 235 Industrialia off the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's property.

Gov. McKinley has sanctioned this movement. Galvin's army is camped behind the stolen freight train and has guards out. Rumors of threats to burn the Fourteenth Regiment armory here brought the local militia out to guard their buildings.

When Detective Mahoney ordered the Galvin men to surrender the captured train, the Coxeyites jeered at him and refused to leave. The detective did not attempt to use force, but at once telegraphed to the Governor for help.

A reply was received from Columbus saying that the Governor had ordered Battery H, of that city, Capt. Frank T.
Stewart, to go to Mount Sterling to clear the train. The battery had Gatling guns and cannon.

The Governor also ordered Companies A, B, C and F, of the Fourteenth Regiment, O. N. G., Col. Colt, of this city, to proceed to Mount Sterling. These are all Columbus companies, and with the battery, will number about 150 men.
Col. Colt himself was at Chillicothe, but has gone home.

As soon as the troops arrived and formed Sheriff Chenoweth handed Col.
Colt a paper directing him to make use of the military in clearing the train.
"Any person," said the paper, "The resists, you will arrest and hold subject to further orders. You will use no more force than is necessary to execute this order. You will then guard the train and railroad property at this point until further orders."

Col. Colt then addressed the men as follows: "Men, I have asked you kindly to leave this train. Your commanding officer has surrendered, and now in the name of the State of Ohio, I order you to leave. I notify that I will give you three minutes to get off the train, and if you don't do so I shall use force, as I am authorized to do so." and as he spoke he drew out his watch to count the minutes. He then started down the train and repeated his order, which was taken up by Gen. Howe and other officers.

Several of the Galvinites yelled, "We surrender!" and began to get down, but the mass of the men frowned and shook their heads. In the mean time the troops were moving into position. The firing guns were placed so as to sweep

POOLS SOLD OPENLY.

"The Electric Telegraph Co." Begins Business at West Farms.

The Electric Telegraph Company, of Westchester, as announced in yesterday's "Evening World," opened up its pool-selling business at West Farms this afternoon. About a thousand people were present, and the five bookmakers did a lively business.

Bets were taken on the Nashville, Roby and East St. Louis tracks. The business was done openly, and there was apparently no fear of arrest.
It is believed that Nagle, who formerly did business at the same place, is the backer of the enterprise. The bookmakers are the same as in the old pool-room.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, April 28.—

History repeated itself up here today, and as on the occasion of the opening game a year ago a rainfall brought fears of disappointment to thousands of baseball cranks. Notwithstanding the fact that it began raining as early as 1 o'clock, the opening of the local baseball season proved such an attraction that by 2 o'clock as many as 2,000 people were in the grounds. The gates were opened at 12:30 o'clock. There was a gathering of people waiting to get in even then.

The decorations of the grounds and stand were probably the most elaborate seen at any of the League openings.
Both tiers of the grand stand were covered with flags and banners of every size and color, and a long string of flags stretched across the top of the stand. There were flags at intervals of twenty feet clear around the fence, and rows of little flags adorned the fence.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—

Fouts and his gladiators did not show much life in their preliminary practice to-day, and thus indicated some of the reasons which prompted President Byrnes's expression of disappointment as to the record of the team thus far. He said it was hard to understand the slow and heavy work of the men, but hoped they would round to very soon and save him from despair.

Schneis concluded to switch Schneis into centre-field and give Tebeau's game leg a chance to-day, putting Hamman
